Superior skills guarantee you a rewarding career as an elevator mechanic but don't guarantee you a lifetime. Coming to the jobsite prepared each day includes not only your wealth of knowledge but also your wits and an awareness of your surroundings. Make your safety training the first thing you pack to go to work each and every day. Your family, friends and brothers and sisters are counting on you.

We came to this trade to have a better life not a shorter one.
